

I am an active radio amateur first licensed in 1959. Although I use CW almost exclusively, and passed various Morse Code tests myself to get my licenses, I fully support the trend and the proposals to drop Morse Code testing as part of any license requirement here in the United States. Thank you.